We help companies obtain and manage federal government contracts

Theodore Watson & Associates, LLC, represents small, medium, and large corporations who are currently doing business or wish to do business with the federal government. We employ all legal means to grow your company's value by:

- Providing affordable legal solutions, including aggressive litigation when necessary
- Minimizing unnecessary litigation and consultation
- Preventing costly mistakes to ensure you comply with a maze of government regulations
- Protecting your profits securely

Our cost-effective solutions are not offered by large firms

SBA Requests for Reconsideration: Our attorneys vastly increase your chances for gaining SBA approval for 8(a) status in the first place. But If the Small Business Association (SBA) has denied your request for 8(a) certification, attorneys at Theodore Watson & Associates will give you the best chance of obtaining a positive reversal of that decision so you can enjoy the many benefits of the SBA 8(a) program after all.

Contract Compliance Management: As a government contractor, you are required to comply with a multitude of regulations and laws. To ensure you avoid costly mistakes and build an excellent compliance record, the attorneys at Theodore Watson & Associates will suggest management decisions that expand your opportunity to gain future government contracts and shield you from government allegations of non-compliance. Construction contracts require the closest attention because their compliance with Federal Acquisition Regulations, among other laws, is scrutinized more closely than other types of contracts.

Government Contracts: Watson's government contracts team provides a large array of services to handle simple and complex federal procurement matters, such as those listed below and many more:

- Bid protests
- Civil litigation
- IG audits and investigations
- Claims & false claims
- Defective pricing
- Business plans
- Contract compliance
- International contracting
- Joint ventures
- Teaming agreements
- Legislation and FAR guidance
- SBA program matters
- GSA schedules
- Contract management
- Termination agreements

Procurement Claims: If the government refuses to pay invoices/claims or delays payment, our government contract attorneys can help you receive the payment you deserve before business operations are compromised. Gaining a strong position early can affect your results, Proper documentation and characterization of a claim and hiring a government contracts attorney indicate the seriousness of your intentions.

Small Businesses: Small businesses working for the federal government receive benefits that are often unavailable to large businesses. Watson & Associates can show you how to gain more small business contracts no matter what your location. We also provide total or partial proposal writing services, specialized guidance appropriate in various industries, and help small businesses develop effective, results-oriented marketing strategies to government.

Teaming and Joint Venture Agreements: Small companies often team together to accomplish the requirements of a government contract, and our JV attorneys can ensure compliance with the many regulations affecting teaming/joint venture agreements as well as contracts with subcontractors, especially in the construction industry.

Training Services: At Watson & Associates contract training sessions, you learn more than just the basics. The bulk of our training services focus on

- Regulatory training
- Avoiding common contracting mistakes
- Marketing to the federal government
- Developing effective RFPs and proposals
- Small business program success
- Contract management

Business Law: Watson & Associates employs a skilled business dispute lawyer team offering a myriad of services tailored to meet your individual needs. Whether you are starting a small business or forming a Colorado business partnership, our attorneys can help form any kind of business partnership, LLC, or incorporation as well as resolve business disputes and clarify contracts.

Litigation: Instead of litigating all types of cases, our attorneys focus on unique areas mostly related to government contracting and business law to better serve our clients. Our general areas for litigation include:

- Business law litigation
- Partnership disputes
- Breach of contract litigation
- Defense of corporations in civil matters
- Government contract litigation
- Family law litigation

Family Law: Having successfully litigated scores of contested family law issues, we offer a cost-effective and comprehensive representation on many issues, including spousal maintenance, child custody, and child support.
